

Action	Overview	Specific Activity
Give continued support to student activities in the area of mechanical and electrical engineering at academic institutions	Networking with talent by providing financial and technical assistance to student activities that we think foster a talent base necessary for Japanese manufacturing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Being a sponsor of "Shoku Circle (Job Circle)", a service run by Puff Co., Ltd., which helps connect students and companies</li> <li>● Providing assistance to university Robocon (Robot Contest) groups</li> </ul>
Have a corporate booth at trade shows Support industry groups and academic societies	Networking with talent by conducting technology information exchange with professors and students engaged in leading-edge studies	Participated in and/or sponsored a total of 8 academic societies/conferences, including the Japan Society of Applied Physics, in 2023
Participate in events for recruiting students	Networking with students by actively participating in events attracting students who want to contribute to society through manufacturing	Participating in about 30 events per year